MARQUETTE

BROADCASTING FROM CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
STATION C. C. H. S. HAMMOND, INDIANA

STUDIO BR

We, the staff of the Marquette, dedicate the following program to the Sisters of the Holy Cross, who are observing the centenary of their founding this year. We consider it a privilege to offer this tribute to those brave sisters who first brought religious training and Catholic refinement to northern Indiana; we likewise honor the memory of the heroic sisters who served America in the Civil and Spanish American Wars; and finally we offer our congratulations and grateful thanks to the Sisters of today—our teachers and our friends.

The Senior Review

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are proud to present to you at this time the program for which you have been waiting . . . the Review of the Class of '41 from the first day of school to their graduation.

As the scene opens, we hear a very excited freshman . . . "Oh, boy, now I'm out of grade school and I'm really going to begin life. For eight years I've studied just to see what a high school is like."

Similar statements were made by about 130 other new students . . . fresh from grade school.

Within a week each class was represented by its officers in all social activities. The first play in which their dramatic ability was portrayed was "The Birds' Christmas Carol." Drama wasn't the only thing; evidence of varsity material was significant.

As sophomores, new officers were chosen. Selection was not so great for many faces disappeared and with the new students, there were still about 20 faces missing.

The sophomores were well represented in "Growing Pains" and "Mysteries of the Mass," a comedy and a religious drama, respectively. The Choral Club was not without the musically inclined sophomores.

"Well, now that we juniors are well established as upperclassmen, we can now start kidding the frosh and sophs . . . Oh! Oh! here comes a senior . . . Duck, fellows!"

The school newspaper, the Hi-Lite, under the able leadership of Judge McGuan and Gertrude Makowski, co-editors, proved to be the most successful monthly in years. The first operetta at Central "And It Rained," a comedy, "The Patsy," the Band, the Camera Club, and the Choral Club all had representatives from the junior class.

One of the big events of the junior year was that Jack Hisey, one of Central's future Patrick Henrys, defeated orators from four states, namely: Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Michigan in the Wranglers' Contest held at Notre Dame.

"Oh! Oh! Here comes exam time. Will I be a Senior next semester?"

"Hurray, I passed!" So spoke the remaining 98 students.

For president of the Senior A class, Joe Winkler received the honors. Senior B also chose an equally capable student to guide them in the person of Frank Reynolds. For vice-presidents, Gertrude Makowski and Dorothy Broviak were selected. As secretaries, Bernice Schrepfer and Carolyn Simala did their best. Tom Hill and Tony Sandrick fulfilled the duties of their offices as treasurers.

A comedy, "Spring Fever," was enacted by the seniors as one of the last social activities of their high school lives.

The basketball, football, and baseball teams, the band, Choral Club, Tri-Opus Club, and the Monogram Club, all lost many members because of graduation.

At the Commencement exercises Joseph Petrovich will have the privilege of giving the valedictory and Gertrude Makowski the salutatory.

And now the scene fades as we end the Senior Review. May they lead their future lives in happiness and prosperity.

Central Fight Song

When Central High goes marching down that line
We're going to win that game another time.
And for the blue and gold we'll fight, fight, fight.
For the blue and gold we'll fight with all our might.
Oh, yes, we'll fight, fight, fight for every yard.
We'll hit that line, we'll hit that line.
We'll bury all our opponents 'neath the sod! 'neath the sod!
Oh, yes, we'll fight, fight, fight!!!

Presenting to you . . . a new Warriors' Fight Song, words and music written by Rosemary Coleman

Warrior Fight Song

Fight for the Blue and Gold!
Fight, Warriors, fight!
Bring victory as of old,
Fight with all your might!

Show how you'll win the game!
Show us your spirit true!
Link Central's name with fame,
For the banner of Gold and Blue!

As the Pageant of Time marched before us, the Freshman play "The Empty Room," given December twentieth, proved a great success. Contributing to the Christmas festivities was the annual Freshman party which was enjoyed immensely.

The fact that the Freshman C group was awarded a half day free for selling second to the most bazaar tickets, cannot be overlooked.

While pausing for station identification we leave you with these memories: Patsy O'Leary proved the owner of a lovely voice when she won third prize for singing in the Tri-Opus Amateur show. Albert Hoder, if asked would proudly state that he was the student manager. Albert Baranowski, Robert Lee, and Lyman Arvesen won a place on the varsity basketball team as anyone could tell by their becoming blue sweaters. For a last thought we inform you of Patricia Manion's great pleasure in accepting the vice-presidency of the Mission Crusade. There seems to be a very brilliant future ahead for the Class of '44.

Men's Club

Mr. J. Drapeau, Mr. P. Coleman, Mr. P. O'Toole

The Men's Club under the able leadership of Mr. Joseph Drapeau, President; Mr. Philip Coleman, Vice-President; and Mr. P. O'Toole, Secretary-Treasurer, have completed another successful year in benefiting Central through various activities.

Striking an unusual note in their gatherings, the club invited the Mothers' Club to enjoy joint meetings. The enthusiasm for this idea was shown by the large attendance.

The high point was the Athletic Banquet, February 16, with Mal Elward, athletic director and football coach of Purdue University, as guest speaker. Mr. James McShane was chairman of the banquet.

Efficient cooperation is given by the men in making the Spring Festival a very prosperous and most enjoyable affair.

We thank the men interested in Central for all they have done for us—we are proud of them.

ROW 1—Mrs. W. Danaher, Mrs. W. O'Keefe, Mrs. J. Ginther, Mrs. F. Einsele.
ROW 2—Mrs. C. Hisey, Mrs. J. Pelka, Mrs. P. Crowe, Mrs. R. Oltz.

And so, as the school year of 1940-1941 fades away into the background, we find it time to bring to the listening audience news of the activities of the Catholic Central Mothers' Club.

Their first project was a Tag Day which was sponsored by the outgoing and incoming officers. . . . This was followed by a shower given for the Sisters in November. . . . The club then sponsored the Family Day Dinner in January and the annual Library Tea in April. . . . The members successfully managed the refreshment and miscellaneous booths at the bazaar, helped the Men's Club with the Athletic Banquet.

Those heading the program activities are:

President—Mrs. W. Danaher
Vice-President—Mrs. W. O'Keefe
Secretary—Mrs. J. Ginther
Treasurer—Mrs. F. Einsele

Senior Mother—Mrs. C. Hisey
Junior Mother—Mrs. J. Pelka
Sophomore Mother—Mrs. P. Crowe
Freshman Mother—Mrs. R. Oltz

Leaving this crew in the control room, we bid farewell with best wishes for success for the new year.

Alumni

ROW I—R. Fenstermaker, R. Hufford, M. Connelly, C. Schreiner.

ROW II—E. Schreiner.

ALUMNI . . . The program of graduates . . . their leaders and staff are all from Central's ranks of past students. This year's broadcast is headed by Robert Fenstermaker, President; Rita Hufford, Vice-President; Mary V. Connelly, Secretary; Clarence Schreiner, Treasurer. Clarence took over the duties of his brother Edward, who was called for selective service.

Leading the list of their social activities is the homecoming given in October. . . . At the game, dinner, and dance Central was a metropolis for both old and new faces. . . . Another big event was the Alumni Christmas formal—which is an annual affair. In April the Calumet Cosmos, the alumni newspaper, celebrated its Birthday with a dance titled "Cosmos Birthday Ball." . . . At the bazaar their booth added to the enjoyment of all and here and there familiar figures of those loyal Central supporters could be seen. . . . Another article on their social program was a skating party held in January. . . . Different activities sponsored during the year completely filled their successful schedule.

As we say good-bye to this part of our radio broadcast, . . . we, the Seniors, say hello to the growing ranks of the alumni.

The following announcement is electrically transcribed

For the next few minutes you will be entertained by the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade of station C. C. H. S.

On the First Friday of every month, the Crusade went on the air with first a meeting and then a program dedicated to some particular phase of Catholic missionary work. At these programs the monthly totals of the weekly collections were given by the treasurer, and the monthly spiritual bouquet by the secretary. Both were sent to Holy Cross Missionaries in India and the far East. The Crusade also collected cancelled stamps which were sent to St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana.

UPPER RIGHT—M. Dubs, C. Lanham, L. Bogusz.

LOWER—J. Rychowski, R. Coleman, B. Wirtz, D. Jackson.

Station C. C. H. S. had its own program guide for the past year known as the Hi-Lite. This guide was brought to you through the courtesy of the co-editors, Rosemary Coleman and Bernard Wirtz, and under the constant guidance and with the indispensable help of Sister Mary Sophia and Sister Mary Julia.

Since all of you Hi-Lite patrons and C. C. H. S. listeners are familiar with the history of this paper we shall not take valuable time off this program to review something you already know. Instead we shall glance over our work and workers of the past year.

Appearing frequently on our program were the beautiful and inspiring poems by Barbara Meich of the literary staff.

Next, we owe a round of applause to the artists, Robert Mount and Marilyn Dubs, whose drawings enlivened our paper and obtained new patrons for it.

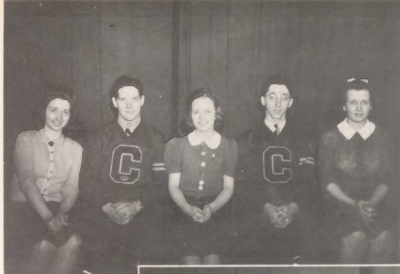

Another feature was the well-done acrostics by Julian Rychowski.

In addition to these, many thanks are given to the remaining members of the staff for their fine work, both individually and collectively.

Among our achievements the most notable was a contest given for a new school song. This contest was judged by members of the faculty who after long consideration, finally announced the winner to be our own co-editor, Rosemary Coleman.

Now the clock tells us it is time to sign off trusting that this program will be handled next year by our capable successors.

Oratory

LOWER—R. Blaney, J. Gibbs, G. Arnold, G. McGuan, J. Dalton, J. Rychowski.

For the second consecutive year the Tri-Opus Club brings to you over the wave lengths of station C. C. H. S. a review of the activities it has sponsored.

The program this year was directed by Gertrude Makowski, president; Robert Kelley, vice-president; James Ginther, treasurer; Carolyn Simala, recording secretary; Mary Jane Reis, corresponding secretary.

On January 24, a cleverly arranged dance entitled "June in January" was given; this dance and also several matinee dances were under the co-chairmanship of Bernice Schrepper and Joseph Winkler. . . . Novel programs were arranged by Dorothy Broviak and John Coriden. The Tri-Opus, always thoughtful, sponsored a drive for the collection of food for needy families during the Christmas holidays. The drivers of the project were Phyllis Hayes and Harold Arvesen. . . . A mission program, the cast including the members of the club, proved a success.

May their successors prove as thoughtful and beneficial as the members of this year's club.

Once again the local station's competent staff of announcers distinguished themselves in competitive auditions with other stations.

On Sunday, April 6, the chief announcer, Jack Hisey, traveled to Indianapolis to defeat commentators from five other stations and win the Knights of Columbus state championship trophy.

On the afternoon of April 7, six of our staff members took part in an elimination contest to determine our representative at the network's annual contest. Jerry Dalton's appealing style won the approval of the judges and he was declared the winner. After two weeks of continual work "on mike" he was ably fitted to represent our little "500 watter." We are proud to announce that although he was not victorious he upheld the good name and reputation of our school.

Junior Prom

An electrically transcribed program brings you your social reporter with the highlights of the 1940 Junior-Senior Prom.

To soft music, pretty girls in swirling formals are dancing with handsome escorts under the star-studded sky. Gaily the couples arrange themselves for intricate formations of the Grand March.

As the strains of the music die away, only the memories remain of the 1940 Prom. Now the anticipation grows for the on-coming Junior-Senior Prom.

I'll be expecting to interview you. . . . Have the best of times. . . . Your social reporter, signing off.

French Club

Bonjour, mes amis. . . . This is the French Club "Parmi Nous" coming on the air on a nationwide hookup.

Your announcer is Ruth Drapeau, the club's president. Now the secretary, Jan Schilling, will read the minutes in French, telling of our Christmas and Easter parties. . . . Our French reporter and vice-president, Leo Bonaventura, has prepared a review of the French newspapers. Charles Joseph, treasurer, will tell us of some French customs.

As our program is ending we will sign off—Au Revoir!

Youth Takes Over

On November 1 and 2 a smash hit, "Youth Takes Over," was sponsored by the Dramatic Guild. This comedy portrayed the calamities which took place when the "black sheep" of the high school staged a carnival for the benefit of the League of Young Citizens.

CAST: Martha O'Donnell, Judge McGuan, Ruth Drapeau, Anna Wilk, Jack Hisey, Carolyn Simala, Lucille Peters, Dorothy Trkula, Diana Kohl, Betty Jane Stumpf, Dorothy Wleklinski, Roy Clark, Albert Bari, Gladys Heili, Mildred Zabrecky, Mary Kay Polito, Leo Engleton, Jerry Dalton, Joseph Villegan, Joseph Petrovich, Frank Susoreny, Patricia O'Toole.

SMART STEPPERS: Bernice Schrepfer, Peggy Halton, Dorothy Broviak, Mary Lou Ginther, Helene Doy'e, Eileen Schaeffer, Aurelia Schumacher, Rosemary Peiffer.

The Empty Room

"The Empty Room" introduced a group of newcomers to the Central airplanes who displayed decided talent. The story evolved around the greedy innkeeper who refused a room to the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph that first Christmas Eve. C. C. H. S. need not fear for its dramatic future while it has freshmen such as these who took part.

CAST: Jean Mullen, Marie Mertens, Mary Ellen Rodman, Edward Radigan, Thomas Zimmerman, Richard Wellman, Charles Ganser, Bernard Cook.

Spring Fever

To climax a successful year, C. C. H. S. signed off with a program of fun and frolic called "Spring Fever" which was sponsored by the senior class. Complete with explosions, death bed scenes and a tragic case of mistaken identity, this play provided the audience with hilarious entertainment.

CAST: Phyllis Hayes, Judge McGuan, Dorothy Broviak, Joseph Winkler, Emily Wadas, Robert Kelley, Dorothy Trkula, Lucille Peters, Francis Badalli, Jack Hisey, Anna Wilk, James Clune.

Choral Club

Now station C.C.H.S. has a pleasant surprise for our radio audience. The Catholic Central Choral Club, under the direction of Rev. A. J. Junk and Sister Mary Sophia has been judged the best over any year of its career. . . . The outstanding performance of the year was the operetta, "Ichabod Crane" from "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow." . . . A High Mass has been sung each First Friday. . . . The background of soft voices added to the reverence due to God. . . . At the annual Christmas play the Choral Clubs' carols fitted into the spirit of the occasion. Their singing of Christmas carols was enjoyed by the patrons at Minas'.

Due to circumstances beyond our control, it will be necessary to discontinue this program. A short program of orchestra and band will follow in just a moment.

Music

ORCHESTRA, 1. to r.—Wojciechowski, Bartz, Hejmej, Huss, Douilly, Zabrecky, Lobodzinski, Mr. Sarvello, Zarych, Neloff, Doffin, Carlson, Drapeau, Klosky, Ciszion, Seaberg, Mueller, Villegan, Grimmer, Buring, Kovac, Meich, Kolb, Cook, Dean, Nowicki, Scherer, Millstead, Hoess.

BAND, 1. to r.—Cook, Nowicki, Millstead, Klosky, Seaburg, Bartz, Buring, Kolb.

ROW III—Hoess, Weiser, Loch, Doffin, Carlson, Zabrecky, Coriden, Kaprocki.

Your announcer has a box seat at the C. C. H. S. band appearance. Mr. Victor Sarvello, the director, has given the signal for the band to play. All of the musicians are from the different classes at Central. . . . We can recall the color they added to the football games, Homecoming, assemblies, and school programs.

Now the microphone is moved to the orchestra pit. . . . The violins are tuned and instruments are ready. Mr. Sarvello again is leading the arrangement. . . . The orchestra's first public appearance was at the operetta "Ichabod Crane." . . .

We now leave our studio to take you to the gym where you will be entertained by a descriptive comment of the 1941 Spring Festival.

Bazaar

Attention! Special news flash! . . . This year's bazaar, which was held on April 24, 25, 26, seemed more amusing, exciting, and entertaining than any given in the past. Bingo was a little more thrilling, the barkers barked a little louder, and the music was a little gayer. All this added to the crowd's gala mood.

Bazaars have a way of planting in our memories their gaiety so that in later years we look back with pleasure and see the highlights as though they happened yesterday.

Special mention should be given to the Mothers' and Men's Clubs and the Alumni for their splendid cooperation in helping to make the bazaar a success. The enthusiasm and aid given by the student body was essential in assuring a gala time for everyone.

For other special flashes stay tuned to this same station.

STUDIO C— AT THE SPORT DESK

Sport Fans:

We will now bring to you a review of the Sports' Parade of 1940-41 including the following: football, basketball, baseball, Girls' Athletic Association, and the intramurals.

As each phase of this review passes before you, you will notice that Central has ample athletic ability. . . .

TOP, ROW I—Fleck, Arvesen, Ginther, Kmiecok, Hisey, Kelley.

ROW II—Stauget, Dudek, Sandrick, Bonaventura, Thompson, Bedenkop.

Warriors

BOTTOM, ROW I—Rak, Winkler, McKenna, Reynolds, Arnold, Joseph.

ROW II—Golden, Einsele, Radigan, Alishio, Moser, Greski.

INSET—Capt. Wojciechowski.

The leadership and outstanding coaching qualities of Joseph Gleason has again led our football team on to a championship for the third consecutive time.

Through his basketball coaching, the team won the respect and admiration of the entire state by winning third place in the state tournament and made its first appearance in the National Tourney held in Chicago.

... Catholic Central is proud of their coach, but sorry because this is his last year with us. Good luck, Coach.

Football Results

A cloud of gloom hung over Central's football field after the first game of the season. Inexperience was a deciding factor as the Warriors were defeated by a rugged, hard, charging St. George eleven of Evanston by a score of 20 to 0.

Though the Warriors fought hard and threatened to score twice they were defeated by the much heavier St. Leo Lions of Chicago . . . 13 to 0.

The Warriors, fighting to within the St. Rita's five yard line twice, once in the first quarter and once in the third quarter, were defeated in the last quarter by a long run. This, the only score of the game caused Central's defeat by a score of 7 to 0.

Not despairing after three straight defeats the Warriors plowed on to victory for the first time by smashing the highly favored South Bend team and defeating them by a score of 9 to 0.

One of the biggest homecoming crowds turned out to see the Warriors win their second conference game of the season from the fighting South Bend Central team by a score of 14 to 7.

The Crown Point team was defeated by a less favored Central team by a score of 20 to 7.

After traveling to Fort Wayne the Warriors turned on an assault that brought about the defeat of the Fort Wayne team. With that game the Warriors acquired the Northern Indiana Catholic High School Championship.

Injuries to many varsity players made Coach Gleason use reserves throughout the game with Tolleston of Gary who defeated the Warriors by a score of 25 to 7.

A score of 0 to 0 was the result of the Central-Thorton Fractional game. Both teams fought desperately because of the rivalry Central aroused by their victory of the preceding year.

TOP ROW, L. to R.—Coach, Mr. Joseph Gleason, R. Moser, T. Sandrick, G. Arnold, A. Miklusak,
R. Thompson, Student Manager, W. Julian.

Boys' Basketball

After three years of coaching, Mr. Joseph Gleason produced one of the best basketball teams in Indiana. At the end of the basketball season the Warriors had sixteen victories and eight defeats.

The Central Warriors were not satisfied with these victories so they entered the State Championship Tournament at Fort Wayne and placed third.

Then to top off an almost perfect season the team was invited to enter the National Tournaments at Loyola in Chicago. This was the first Central team to procure a bid for the nationals. The team should be complimented for their exceptional sportsmanship even though they did not come home victorious.

Next year we will be looking forward to a team with a new record and a new championship

Hello, everybody. . . . We are now in the broadcasting booth at Catholic Central gym.

Young girls, all clad in blue and gold basketball suits are now making ready for a victorious game—"Victorious" is the correct word as our varsity has won the championship in the girls' tourney and brought back for our trophy case a shining gold trophy which was presented to Rosemary Coleman, captain, at Mokena, Illinois. Phyllis Hayes, Bernice Herod, and Josephine Streeter won special awards for outstanding ability on their team. Under the excellent coaching of Sister John Michael the team won eight out of nine games played.

The filled bleachers and energetic cheers showed the enthusiasm for the girl's team. . . . Good luck to you, girls. . . .

A trophy was given to each winning team and will be put in the new trophy case at Central.

Baseball

As we tune in this program we can hear the announcer say . . . "There's another home run for Central's team." . . .
